The Midnight Library

By Matt
Haig

Somewhere, out beyond the edge of the universe, there is a library that contains an infinite number of books, each one the story of another reality. Every book provides a chance to try another life you could have lived if your life choices had been different. While we all wonder how our lives might have been, what if you had the chance to see for yourself? Would any truly be better?

The Midnight Library is the story of Nora Seed. Who finds herself faced with just this decision, changing her life for a new one, following a different career, undoing old breakups, realizing her dreams; she must search within herself as she travels through the Midnight Library to decide what is truly fulfilling in life, and what makes it worth living. This New York Times #1 bestselling book has won several awards and "Best Book" notations from groups around the world.

Author Matt Haig has several other books including How to Stop Time, The Humans, and The Radleys. He has also written books for children and a memoir: Reasons to Stay Alive. Matt Haig is an English author and journalist. His writing style is very readable (Information obtained from Goodreads and Amazon.com)

Genres: Time Travel Fiction, Literature and Fiction.
Available on Audio CD, Audible and Kindle as well as written novel.

Listening Length – 8 Hours and 50 minutes - unabridged. 304 pages
